

PROBLEM STATEMENT

The problem statement aims at detecting the presence of Parkinson's disease at an early stage with the help of hand drawings to provide with essential medication to improve the expectancy of life.

Who does the Disease affect?	Adults over the age of 50
Why is it important to use?	Time and Cost Efficient
What are the Benefits?	Early Detection
How is it better than the others?	Accessible by everyone and at anytime
When to use?	Suspected to have related symptoms